The purpose of the firm remains clear—Helping Good People Overcome Bad Situations.™ David Reddell, a founding partner of the firm Plezia, McLemore, Reddell, Ardoin & Story, P.L.L.C., exemplifies this purpose and has built his reputation based on outstanding trial results and a tireless quest for justice.

During this process, Mr. Reddell has received numerous professional accolades including:

- 2008-2009: Houston's Top Lawyers, H Texas Magazine
- 2006-2009: Professionals on the Fast Track, H Texas Magazine
- Featured in Texas Lawyer and The National Law Journal for his efforts in the courtroom

In addition, Mr. Reddell is a former Assistant District Attorney who never lost a felony jury trial during his service.

"We are a boutique firm that is qualified by our training, skill, and experience to handle essentially any criminal or civil litigation case anywhere in the state," said Mr. Reddell. And it is through the representation of their clients that he and his partners strive to uphold the purpose of their firm.

Mr. Reddell and his firm focus on Criminal Defense, Personal Injury, Products Liability, and Commercial Litigation.
